

Supplementary Figure S1. Chains of EBOV transmission in Guinea the months before the index case was reported. The index case (the child) has case number 32. There were no reported cases in the Dubréka prefecture during the two months before EVD was diagnosed in the index case. All other cases originated from Conakry. Those without indication of the district were from Ratoma district.

